FUND FACTS

Investment Style

Diversified Emerging Markets

Investment Objective

Long-term capital growth

Investment Strategy

The Fund invests at least 80% of its net assets in a diversified portfolio of equity securities issued by companies in emerging markets. The Fund's investment team employs both fundamental analysis and quantitative screening in seeking to identify companies that the investment team believes can sustain above-average earnings growth relative to their peers. Fundamental, bottomup research focuses on companies that rank highly within the investment team's quantitative screen, with particular emphasis placed on a company's earnings growth, business strategy, value creation, competitive position, management quality, market position, and political and economic backdrop. The investment team monitors market and sovereign risk as part of the overall investment process.

Investment Team

Sophus Capital believes that emerging market equities reward growth, and that an integrated, risk-managed approach can provide clients with a consistent return experience. The team is led by Chief Investment Officer, Mike Reynal.

Returns include reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. Performance for periods greater than one year are annualized.

Past performance does not guarantee future results. The performance data quoted represents past performance and current returns may be lower or higher. The investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost. To obtain performance information current to the most recent month-end, visit www.vcm.com.

Returns with sales charge include the maximum sales charge of 5.75%. Net Asset Value (NAV) returns exclude this charge, which would have reduced returns.

An investor should consider the fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing or sending money. This and other important information about the fund can be found in the fund's prospectus, or, if applicable, the summary prospectus. To obtain a copy, visit www.vcm.com. Read the prospectus carefully before investing.

All investing involves risk, including potential loss of principal. There is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its objective. International investing involves special risks, which include changes in currency rates, foreign taxation, differences in auditing standards and securities regulations, political uncertainty, and greater volatility. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. Investments in small and mid-size companies can involve risks such as less publicly available information, higher volatility, and less liquidity than larger companies.

Not all share classes are available to all investors. Please read the prospectus for details. Active Share is a measure that compares the proportion of security holdings within the product against those of the respective benchmark. The value represents the percentage difference between fund and benchmark. Alpha is the excess return of a fund relative to the return of a benchmark index. Beta is a measure of the volatility, or systematic risk, of a security or portfolio relative to the market or a benchmark. R-squared is a statistical measure that represents the percentage of a fund's or security's movements that can be explained by movements in a benchmark index.

Turnover - Last 12 Months (LTM) is a measure of trading activity in a mutual fund portfolio of investments for the past year that indicates how often investments are bought and sold. Information Ratio is a measure of the value added per unit of active risk by a manager over the benchmark. The Information Ratio is calculated by dividing the annualized excess return over a benchmark by the annualized standard deviation of excess return. Sharpe ratio is the average return earned in excess of the risk-free rate per unit of volatility or total risk.

The Russell 3000® Value Index is an unmanaged market-capitalization-weighted index that measures the performance of those companies in the Russell 3000® index with lower price-to-book ratios and lower forecasted growth values.

A Fund's portfolio differs significantly from the securities held in an index. An index is unmanaged and not available for direct investment.

The Funds are distributed by Victory Capital Advisers, Inc., member FINRA and SIPC, an affiliate of Victory Capital Management Inc.
